

ICOMON Annual Conference 2024

ICOMON in collaboration with International Numismatic Council and the Economy Museum – Royal Coin Cabinet in Stockholm

Call for papers

Cross-Organization Collaborations

25-28 September 2024, Economy Museum – Royal Coin Cabinet in Stockholm, Sweden

Within the field of banking and money museums and numismatic departments, a wide range of collaborations are possible when dealing with numismatics, financial literacy, monetary and economic history, collections management and exhibitions.

The ICOMON conference 2024 would like presenters to consider ways that different specialists and stewards can teach and learn from one another to better the discipline and the ways that we work. What unites the multiplicity of specializations and the willingness to collaborate and learn from one another?

To this end, we are especially interested in real case studies related to the theme Cross-Organization Collaborations regarding:

- How can cross-organization collaborations strengthen the outreach to a wider community? For example, universities, museums, museum networks, associations, banks, public authorities and financial institutions often share common interests.
- How can a historic numismatic perspective reach beyond the museums and numismatic world?
- Digitization and digital medias: for whom, by whom, why and how? How does it help with pedagogy and teaching?
- How can we better safeguard the collections?

The ICOMON conference 2024 will be hosted by the Economy Museum – Royal Coin Cabinet in Stockholm, Sweden.

ICOMON members and others interested in the theme of the conference are invited to present proposals for papers. Please observe that presentations will only be held physically on site in Stockholm, but it will be possible to view the lectures digitally. The length of the presentations is c. 15 minutes, and 5 minutes for questions. The presentations are open and free to anyone interested.
